Through the year...

DO YOU REMEMBER

Rush...

This year was unique in that rush was held a week after classes had begun. The first week of classes was deemed "Casual Contact" in which members of fraternities could speak to freshmen only on the hill. Open houses began the weekend of September 16th and continued through Sunday evening. Rush dates were held Sunday, Monday, Wednesday, and Friday of the following week. Bids were passed out that Wednesday and Friday.

There was some confusion about the new rush rules causing some fraternities to be more "creative". President of the Inter-fratenity Council Ross Singletary said he was optimistic about next year's rush because he said he thinks the IFC has learned from its mistakes.

Homecoming

This year the W&L Generals suffered a heartbreaking 20-22 loss to Hampden Sydney Tigers. The game was close but the students were in good spirits following the previous night's performance by Guadalcanal Diary and the Producers. The homecoming queen for the second year in a row was a W&L girl, sophomore Stacy Noelle Patmore. Stacy was the candidate from Kappa Sigma fraternity. The first runner-up was W&L junior Mary Alice McMorrow, from Phi Kappa Psi fraternity.

Parents' Weekend

Families of Washington and Lee students gathered in Lexington during the first weekend in November. Approximately 1,500 relatives attended the 34th annual Parents' Weekend to gain a greater understanding of the university.

The weekend's activities included open houses in many academic departments and campus houses, a concert put on by the W & L choral ensembles, seminars and career programs and faculty-parent conferences. The annual President's Report was delivered in Lee Chapel by Dean Elrod who served as acting president while President John D. Wilson was on sabbatical at Oxford University. The report focused on the difficult admissions policies at W & L, new building projects, and the Fraternity Renaissance Program.

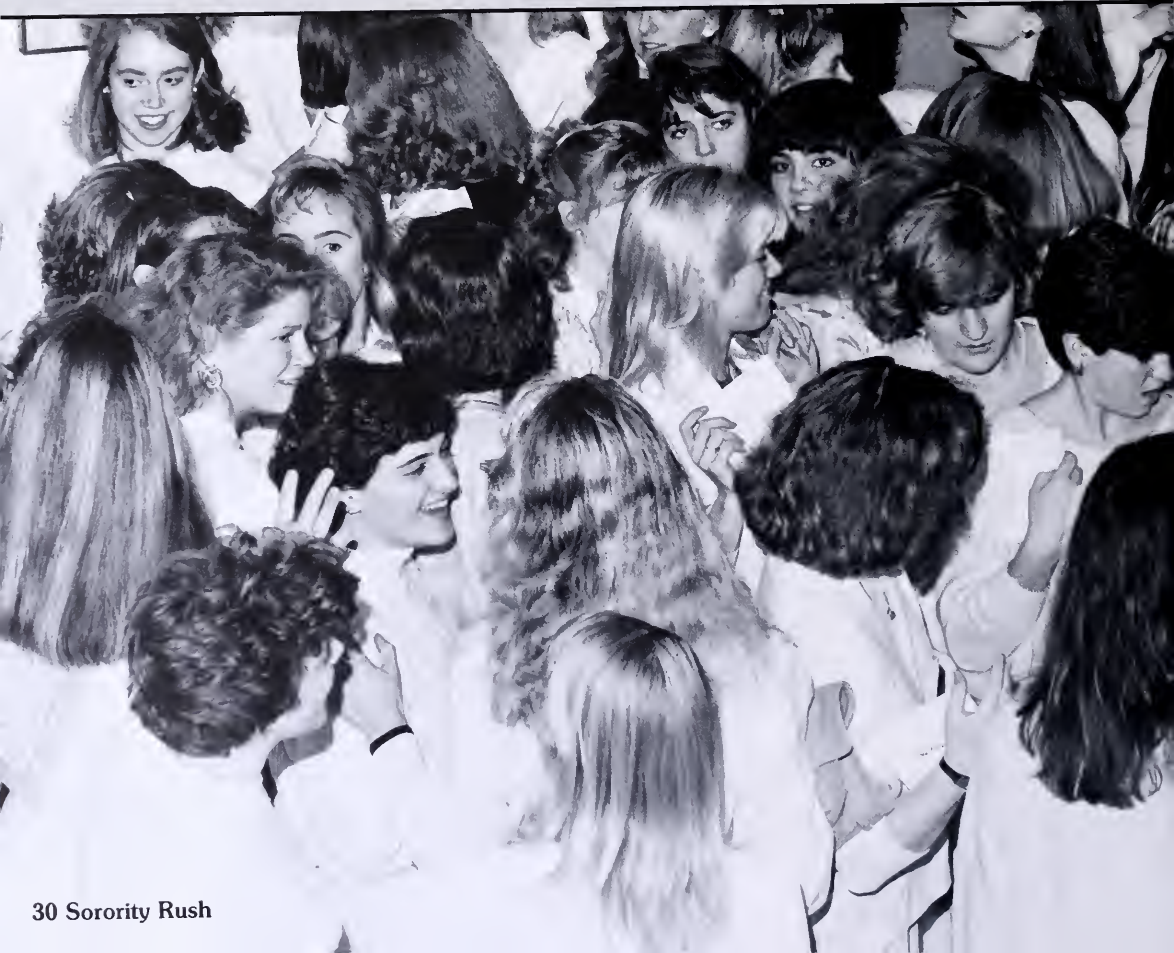
Women's Rush

Colonization of national sororities took place on the W & L campus in January, 1989. Three national sororities: Chi Omega, Kappa Alpha Theta, and Kappa Kappa Gamma were chosen by the Sorority Advisory Committee composed of students, faculty, and administrators. The committee was assembled in response to surveys of undergraduate women which expressed interest in colonization.

The three sororities were selected from presentations given by five national women's fraternities (Kappa Delta and Pi Beta Phi were not selected). W & L women interested in sororities attended pre-rush registration, registration, and open houses before the interviews began. Preference parties were followed by the extension of bids. Approximately eighty women initiated into each of the three sororities in April.



THETA

Contact

Through the year, a variety of lecturers visited the W&L campus due to Contact's patronnage. The student run group brought the controversal Nicaraguan resistance leader Adolfo Calero to Lee Chapel. Thanks to Contact, W&L students received a first hand insight to world affairs. Hosea Williams spoke on the inherent right to freedom.

Contact kept W&L in tune with Virginia politics by sponsering debates between Judd & Olin and Huffman & Frame. Senator Charles Robb campaigned here; students welcomed Robb's return since his first visit to W&L was addressing the 1988 Mock Convention (a blurr to most).

Contact also brought to W&L the following guest lecturers: Lt. Governor Doug Wilder, Russell Kirk, Thomas Rideout, Al McGuire, Ernest Fitzgerald, Ken Cribb, and the Constitutional Law Panel. Supreme Court Justice Sandra Day O'Conner visited W&L through (partial) sponsership by Contact.

Founder's Day

Founder's Day is traditionally marked by the tapping of the new ODK initiates. ODK is a national leadership organization which was begun in 1914 on the Washington & Lee campus by 12 students. The organization seeks to recognize campus leaders and in the words of current ODK president Marion "Moose" Herring, "It gets campus leaders together to talk about campus activities."

This year ODK tapped 21 juniors and seniors and inducted two honorary members. The honorary members were William R. Johnston, a 1961 graduate, and Donald H. Baker, a member of the class of 1968. Johnston is chairman of the board and CEO of Agora Securities, Inc. in New York, a member of the Wall Street Club and executive vice president and director of the Cancer Research and Teaching Fund. Baker is artistic director for Lime Kiln Arts, Inc., the center for the arts that he founded in Lexington in 1982. The five categories for excellence when determining who gets tapped are scholastic achievement, athletics, social service and campus government leadership activities, journalism, speech and mass communications, and the creative and performing arts.

"DANCE FOR THOSE WHO CAN'T"

TP

TP

Superdance this year was a huge sucess as the committee raised over $5,000 more than expected. W&L students danced on February 4th & 5th to raise $30,692. The Superdance Steering Committee worked under the leadership of Wright Ledbetter, Debra Hurtt, and their adviser Fontanne Bostick. To kick off the weekend, the traditional Battle of the Bands was held. The winner would open for Indecision and the Connells Saturday night. Phi Delt's Green Eggs and Ham snaked the victory for the second straight year.

Fancy Dress

This year for Fancy Dress we embarked on a journey upon the Orient Express. The journey began Thursday evening when The Fabulous Waller Family opened for the great B.B. King. Friday night people entered the Warner Center as enormous search lights criss-crossed the skies leading to the train platform. The Warner Center was decorated as four different cities, all stops on the Orient Express. The decorations even included an actual size replica of the bar/saloon car of the Orient Express. The music for the event included the Lester Lanin Orchestra in the new gym and the Reivers opening for the Young Fresh Fellows in Doremus gym. The evening concluded with a spectacular 30 minute firework display over Wilson field at 12:30a.m.

SAB

The Student Activities Board knocked itself out in '88-'89. SAB had a banner year under the leadership of David Grove, Charles Frankum, and Michael Applebaum. SAB brought Steven Wright and Little Feat to the new pavillon. Shows by the Connells, New Potato Caboose, and the Producers and Guadalcanal Diary kept the students entertained. Acquiring B.B. King for FD and contributing to Superdance ranks this year's SAB with the top in recent memory. SAB continued the nights in the Pit, plus adding new ideas like Bingo night. Congratulations to the SAB members for a great year!

Winter Break

To celebrate Washington's birthday, many W&L students took off for the mountains to go skiing, the beaches for some sun, or London for a little bit of culture. Some went to Jamaica where they lived off of shark's teeth and danced in a cave. Cancun was, again, a popular spot for those wanting warm weather and a lot of sun, as were the Bahamas and the Florida Keys. Even the baseball and men's lacrosse teams went to Florida to practice and play some games. Others went to the mountains of Colorado for skiing or lounging in the lodge. Some, however, went home or even stayed in Lexington to study, relax, or compete in sports events.

Theater...

Washington & Lee thesbians put on four major productions and a seris of three one act plays in 1988-1989. The year culminated in the "Little Shop of Horrors", the longest running show of the season. The Advanced Directing Class presented the one act play series. The three directors: Drew Platt, David Daves, and Mike Dixon, each chose a theme of sexual harassment. A special thanks goes out to the technical director Gary Humiston, and to the publicity coordinator and graphic designer, Pamela Oates. W&L theatrical successes depended on these two people's invaluable contributions.

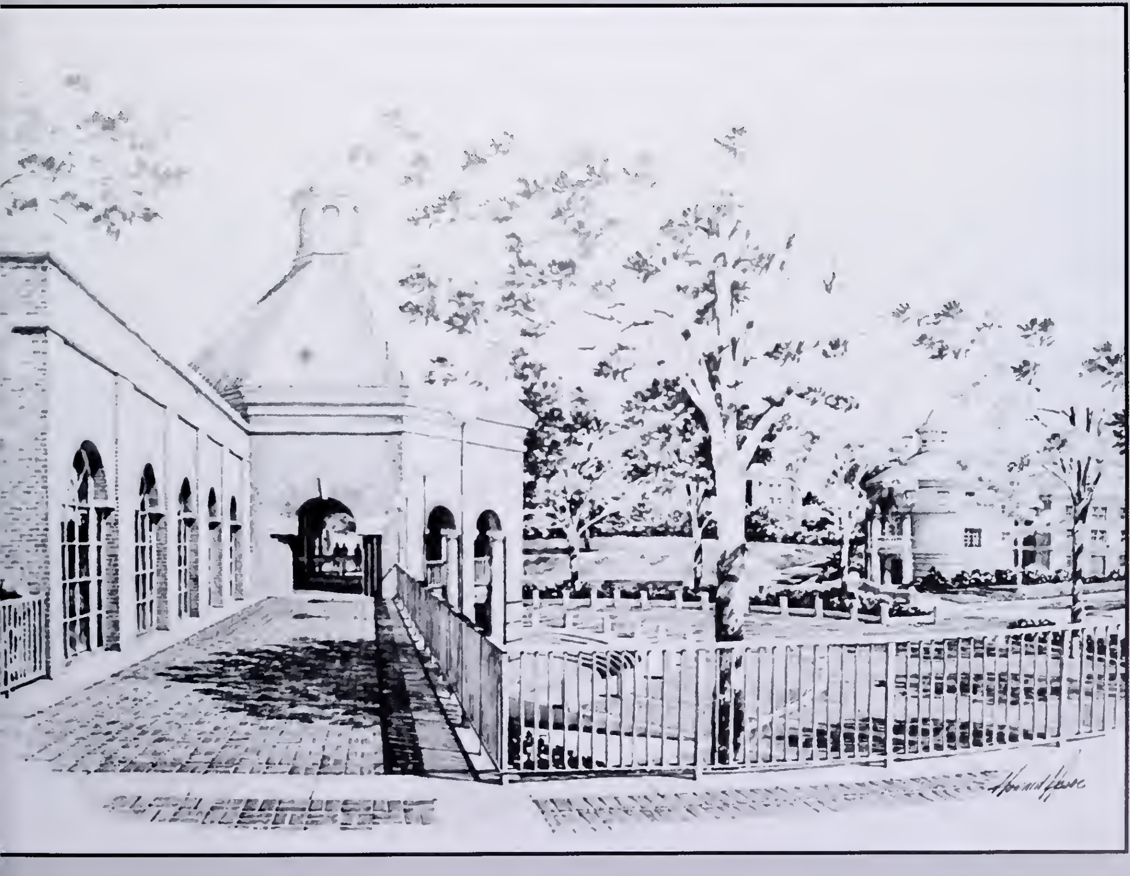
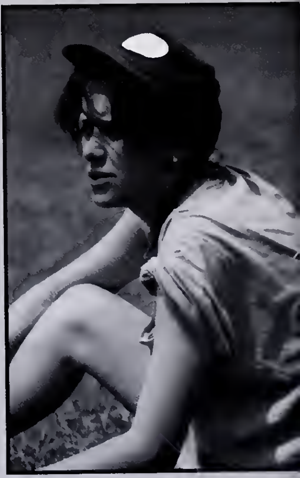
Progress

Improvements continue to be made around Lexington in 1988-1989. Students eagerly awaited the new "Harris Teeter". The "Fast Lane" bowling alley allows students to go bowling for dollars in town. Around campus, construction workers resumed the infamous blasting in the attempt to transform the old freshmen parking lot into a theater. The Center for Performing Arts is scheduled for completion fall 1990.

KEEP OUT





Spring Term

Indecision, the Connells, and the Neville Brothers kicked of W&L's spring term on Sunday, April 16 at Van Ripers near Charlottesville. A week and a half of parties, sun, and warmth ended with a 'riot' in Red Square, a few days of rain, and a muddy day at Foxfield.

The so-called Red Square Riot was actually a harmless gathering of students in the area behind Beta, PiKA, and Phi Delt on a Wednesday night, but the police were bored that night. The following weekend brought rain and mud, yet some students still got decked out for KA's Old South, Foxfield, and Phi Delt's Hells Angels party.

The Kentucky Derby fell in the middle of the term, and many students journeyed to Louisville to watch the horses and/or the people.

Alumni Weekend

Hundreds of Alumni returned to W&L on May 12th to help us celebrate one of our few beautiful days this spring. They were greeted by old friends and some of us made new ones. Alumni weekend was again one of the most festive weekends of the year, W&L and mother nature both dressed to the 10's for the occasion.

Confetti's

The Kingpins and Derryberry and Alagia entertained everyone on May 20 at what may have been the last Confetti's weekend. The weekend started with a banquet Friday night attended by the Honorable Elizabeth B. Lacy, Justice, Supreme court of Virginia, and featuring Southern Comfort. Those who didn't make it to Zollman's Pavilion on Saturday afternoon to hear Derryberry and Alagia enjoyed listening to Lost in the Supermarket and CHO in the Gaines quad during the Amnesty International concert. The Dell was packed on Saturday night with people crowded around the Kingpins or the bottles. Most people stumbled home when the band quit playing, though some decided to do some late-night studying(?) in the library on the way.

Commencement

The "Better Dead than Co-ed" bumperstickers have faded, the Cock-Pit has been changed to the General Headquarters, and the fight song that once went "..and we'll roll old Sweetbriar on the side" has been changed. This year the first class of women to enter Washington & Lee graduated on June 1, 1989. 77% of the 107 women and 316 men who came here in 1985 graduated. Hundreds of family members joined the graduates on the 90 degree plus Thursday afternoon to celebrate the occasion. We are sad to a class which has achieved so much to leave, they will be sorely missed but we wish them a world of luck.

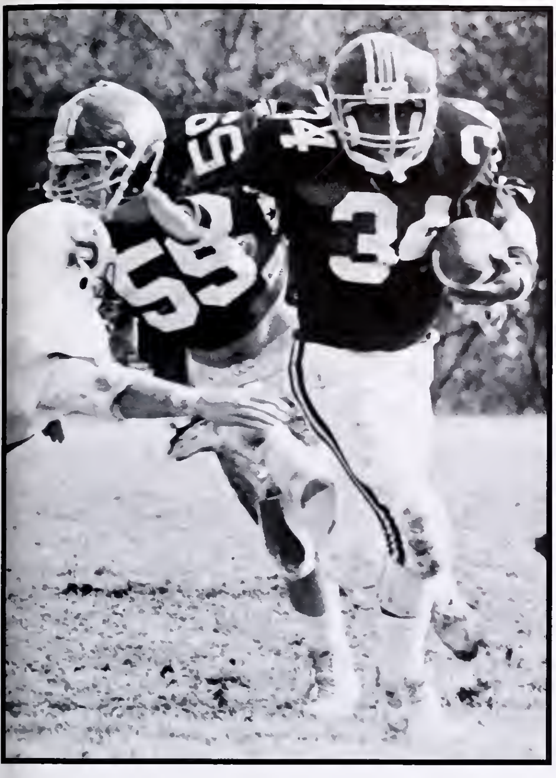
Football

Story by Jim Johnson

The 1988 season was supposed to be a rebuilding period for the Washington and Lee Generals football squad. After suffering two losing seasons in a row, the W&L team surprised everyone by winning five of their last six games to finish the 1988 season with a 5-3 and 1 record.



The Generals reported to Coach Fallon's rigorous pre-season trainig camp on August 18, and it was there that the team began to develop the togetherness that helped them overcome adversity throughout the season.

On September 10, Washington and Lee opened its season on Wilson Field with a tough 41-12 loss against Old Dominion Athletic Conference foe Emory and Henry. The Generals struck first against the Wasps, but then saw them run off a 35-3 stretch in the second and third quarters that put the game out of reach. Although overpowered by the Emory and Henry squad, the Generals were not discouraged, and looked to fine-tune their play during an open week before they faced Centre College in a non-conference game in Danville, KY.

The Generals felt well prepared to face Centre, having taken advantage of an open date to put in some extra preparation for the game. Unfortunately, Washington and Lee slipped into their second defeat of the season, losing 30-16. The Generals scored first again to take a 7-0 lead on Russell Crosby's 33 yard run, but Centre came back witha strong running game. They scored 21 points in the third quarter, the first six coming on a 91 yard kickoff return, to secure the win.

Washington and Lee began to turn the corner on October 1 when they played ODAC opponent Randolph-Macon to a 10-10 tie at Wilson Field. The Generals took a 7-0 lead midway through the first quarter when quarterback Phillip Sampson connected with junior tight end Bob Martin on a 70 yard catch-and-run. W&L fell behind 10-7 in the second half, but the Generals rallied to tie the game on a 28 yard field goal from sophomore Carter Quayle. The kick was set up when senior split end Keith Boyd pulled down a 41 yard pass. Boyd suffered a broken leg on the play and was sidelined for the rest of the season.

The Generals finally got their first win of the season by shutting down Maryville College 20-0 in Tennessee, the first W&L shutout since 1979. The W&L defense stopped the Scots four times on drives inside the Generals' 15-yard-line to preserve the shutout. The W&L offense had an excellent showing, piling up 360 total yards, including 289 yards rushing. Not only was the victory the first of the Generals' 1988 season, it was also the victory that made 11-year head coach Gary Fallon No. 1 in coaching victories in the history of W&L football. In their fifth game of the season, the Generals fell "a nickel shy" of pulling out their second win of the season in their Homecoming game against Hampden-Sydney. A few unfortunate breaks put the W&L squad on the down side of a 22-20 score as the ODAC-rival Tigers rallied with 12 fourth-quarter points to escape with the win. The Generals saw a 13-10 fourth-quarter-lead erased when the Tigers notched a game-tying field goal and then forged a lead courtesy of a W&L mistake. Generals punter Tom Skeen was tackled in the end zone after retrieving a high snap from center. The Tigers then took the ensuing free kick and marched down the field to post a 22-13 lead. The Generals defense rallied, though, as defensive end Tony Onorato snared a Tiger pitch out at the W&L 18 and Lumbered 82 yards to pull Washington and Lee within two points. The Tigers recovered the ensuing onside kick and ranout the clock from there.

After their disappointing Homecoming loss to Hampden-Sydney, the Generals caught fire, winning the last four games of the season. They started with a 21-0 shutout against the University of the South which showcased the Generals' defense. W&L forced six Sewanee turnovers and held the Tigers to just two of 13 third-down conversions.

In the Generals next contest, against conference foe Bridgewater, the W&L team rallied with two forth-quarter touchdowns, including a 5-yard touchdown pass from Phillip Sampson to split end Craig Irons with 35 seconds to play, to tally a 14-10 win.

The Washington and Lee team continued its winning ways on a muddy Wilson Field with a 10-6 victory over Ursinus on Parents' Weekend. The Generals' only touchdown of the day came on a 44-yard bomb from Phillip Sampson to sophomore slotback Carl Gilbert, and that was all the scoring the Generals would need to get their fourth win in their final home game of the season.

For the final contest of the season, the Generals flew to St. Louis to take on Washington University. The Generals put together two touchdowns from senior running back Tony Waskiewicz with a record-breaking field goal from sophomore place kicker Carter Quayle to score their fourth consecutive victory, 17-13.

"I am so delighted that we were able to end the season on a high note," said W&L head coach Gary Fallon. "I'd like to thank the 11 seniors for their four years of commitment and leadership. I think they put some juice back into W&L football."

Though it took a few games to get the ball rolling, the 1988 Generals set the stage for what should be a solid 1989 season. Bright spots in the 1988 lineup include 9 Old Dom-

Soccer

Story by Mike Stachura '86
Sports Information Director

In spite of inconsistent play and numerous injuries, the W&L men's soccer team concluded the year with an 8-6-2 record and finished third in the ODAC with a conference record of 2-2.

The Generals, who struggled offensively much of the season, finished the year by playing some of their best soccer at the end. W&L went 3-1-1 in its final games, notching a win and a tie over a pair of NCAA Division II schools.

Junior Patrick Brown, who now owns the W&L record for career assists with 17, was named to the All-ODAC soccer team, as was senior co-captain Steven Udicious, who was generally regarded as the ODAC's premier defensive player.

"We've been inconsistent, but I think overall we played a high level of soccer against a very strong schedule," head coach Rolf Piranian said. "We had a senior class that played very well, and I believe each senior played the best soccer of his career this year."

Women's Soccer

Story by Mike Stachura '86
Sports Information Director

In only its second year as a varisty sport, W&L's women's soccer team posted a 7-9 record and finished fourth in the ODAC regular season. Head Coach Janine Hathorn, who led the Generals to three times as many wins as they had in 1987, received ODAC Coach of the Year honors. Freshman fullback Nancy Mitchell was named to the All-ODAC first team, while junior fullback Sarah Allen, junior forward Catherine Baillio, and freshmen forward Ashley Gray were named to the All-ODAC second team.

"It was an awesome season," Hathorn said. "I think we've come a long way this year."

Water Polo

Story by Chris Roberts

The 1988 Washington and Lee Water Polo team finished with a very respectable 15-9 record, but were it not for arch-rival Arkansas-Little Rock they may have fared even better. The Trojans of Arkansas-Little Rock knocked off the Generals three times in 1988-each at a crucial juncture of the season. W&L dropped the championship of the Southern League Tournament by a 13-9 tally, then lost in the championship of the Southern League Championships by a 13-6 score. Arkansas-Little Rock delivered their final blow in the Eastern Championships with a 16-12 defeat of the Generals.

However, despite the disappointing 8th place finish in the East, W&L polo did have many bright spots. Their 15-9 record was the 11th straight winning record for water polo at W&L, and the team as a whole attained the highest G.P.A. for a men's team at W&L (2.939), placing four men on the Athletic-Academic Honor Roll. Also, W&L attained a ranking as high as 17th in the nation and 4th in the East during the season.

The season began well for the Generals as they swept through their own W&L Fall Classic at Cy Twombly Pool. Led by senior co-captains David Deitz and David Reavy, W&L polo defeated Lynchburg, Dayton, and Army twice each to open 6-0. From there the nationally ranked Generals began a four tournament road trip with 16-team Southeastern Varisty Invitational at Annapolis, MD. There two of the best polo teams in the East, No.10 Brown and No.17 Bucknell squeezed by the Generals. W&L was able to defeat N0.18 Iona however to emerge 1-2 for the weekend.

Providence, R.I. and the Northeast Varisty Tournament was the next test for 17th ranked W&L. Iona returned the favor of a week earlier by besting the Generals 10-5. W&L was able to rebound with a strong win over M.I.T. and a thrilling double overtime victory over Army 15-14.

The team then took a couple of weeks off to prepare for a western swing to the Claremont Invitational in Claremont, Ca. There the Generals posted impressive wins over Claremont-Mudd-Scripps (5-4) and Pamona-Pitzer (15-8). They were beaten by 10th ranked U.C.-San Diego, yet the trip was very beneficial. Coach Page Remillard said, "It was a great trip. We went out and achieved everything I had hoped we would achieve, both in and out of the pool. I think the team was very representative of W&L, and everything went well."

A return east saw W&L travel to Wilmington, N.C. for the Southern League Tournament, a tune-up for the next week's Southern League Championships. The 11-4 Generals sailed into the championship game with wins over Hampden-Sydney and Richmond by a combined score of 45-10. Yet Arkansas-Little Rock dashed the Generals championship hopes and sent a message for next week.

The team trained hard for the Southern League Championships and had the added advantage of playing the tournament at home (only the second home appearance of the season). Again, Hampden-Sydney and Richmond made easy wins to set up the Arkansas-Little Rock rematch. The Trojans, however spoiled the Generals 11th consecutive appearance in the championship game of the tournament, yet strong play allowed seniors David Reavy, David Deitz, and Moose Herring to be named to the 8-man All Conference team.

W&L's second place finish qualified them for the Eastern Championships in Providence, R.I. Arkansas-Little Rock set the tone with a first game set back, and the Generals went on to drop contests to Harvard and Army and finish the season as the eighth best team in the east. Of this finish Remillard said, "It was a big letdown and we never talked about finishing eighth."

Washington and Lee Water Polo will sorely miss the loss of All-America caliber co-captains Reavy and Dietz and a fine corps of seniors. Yet, the excellent bench play throughout the season is an indication of what the future holds for W&L Polo. Coach Remillard concluded, "I think our future looks bright and that's what it was all about."

Basketball

Story by Tom Hayes

The 1988-1989 Basketball season proved to be the Generals best showing in seven years. After concluding a perfect home game year, the Generals clinched the regular season ODAC title only to be stopped by arch-rival Hampden-Sydney in the final round of ODAC Championships. Coach Verne Canfield was named ODAC Coach of the Year, and sophomore Chris Jacobs received Player of the Year honors.

Under the leadership of Coach Canfield and senior captain Lee Brading, the Generals kicked off the season by crushing Gallaudet 80-54 and N.C. Wesleyan 86-75 in the W&L Tip-Off Tournament. After suffering an agonizing defeat to Emory University, the Generals bounced back to maul Hampden-Sydney 94-74. The Generals were led by sophomores Chris Jacobs and Ed Hart, each scoring 20 points.

Following a close defeat to Greensboro College, the Generals embarked on a nine game winning streak, marching by rivals Roanoke and Bridgewater. The hot streak came to a crashing halt when the Generals lost to Hampden-Sydney. Recovering from the loss, the Generals began a new seven game winning streak which consolidated the regular season championship and a bid in the conference tournament held in Salem, Virginia.

Suffering two close defeats to Eastern Mennonite (by two) and to Tufts (by five), the Generals weathered another loss to Amherst. Despite these disappointments, the Generals' hopes were high going into the semi-final game against Roanoke. Jacobs led the Generals with 22 points, and W&L destroyed Roanoke College 80-59. The match-up with Hampden-Sydney for the final round left the Generals short of an ODAC victory.

Although the Generals failed to win the tournament, the 1988-1989 year proved to be a banner season. With most of the team returning next year, the Generals could capture the elusive title. Coach Canfield and Jacobs will be looked on to defend their respective titles and W&L fans have great expectations for the 1989-1990 season.

Wrestling

Story by Jay Plotkin

For the 1988-1989 Washington and Lee wrestling team, it was a story of a team that never really got going. Injuries were the major hinderance for the Generals' grapplers.

Only five wrestlers were healthy for the entire season, freshman Peer Soderberg at 158 pounds, sophomores Larry Pilkey at 118 and 126 and Bill Avery at 150 and 167, seniors Manoli Loupassi at 177 and 190, a co-captain, and Rich Redfoot at 177 and 190. With little depth at the start of the season, the Generals could hardly afford injuries.

To open the season, the Generals travelled north for the Lebanon Valley Invitational in Pennslyvania. The team placed tenth, paced by the performances of Redfoot at 177, senior co-captain Mark Robertson at 167, Pilkey at 118 and junior Lee Garlove, a 1988 Academic All-American, at 142. Redfoot finished third, Robertson fourth and Pilkey and Garlove seventh in their respective weight classes.

In dual match competition, the Generals started the season with losses to Western Maryland, 34-13, and Johns Hopkins, 32-11. Redfoot won both of his matches, and W&L received strong outings from Pilkey, Soderberg, Avery at 150, and Robertson.

From there, the Generals travelled to compete in the Davidson Quadrangular, where the Generals broke into the win column with a 33-15 conquest of the host school. W&L got big wins against Davidson from Soderberg, Avery, junior Jonah Glick at 134, Redfoot, Loupassi, and Pilkey. The Davidson win, however, was followed by some bad news. First the Generals lost two matches to Georgia Tech and Furman, and then they lost Robertson (knee) and Garlove (recurring migrane headaches) for the year. Robertson finished his career at 20-9-1.

The 1-5 Generals then hosted the annual W&L Invitational, and rode the performances of Redfoot, Pilkey, Soderberg, Loupassi, and Avery to a fifth-place finish. Redfoot won the title at 190 pounds. Pilkey finished second at 118. Soderberg was impressive as well, finishing second at 158. Loupassi turned in one of his best outings of the year, coming in third at 177. Avery, now at 167 to replace the injured Robertson, came in fourth.

From there, the Generals fell to a tough Division I team from Virginia Tech. The lone bright spot was Redfoot, who was brillant again for the Generals. Redfoot blitzed his opponent, claiming an 18-1 technical fall with just 4:44 gone in the match.

WPH

W&L then took advantage of a depleted Gustavus Adophus aquad, who was wrestling with just five grapplers. To earn the maximum amount of points possible, W&L had injured wrestlers make weight to earn a forfeit. The victory was sealed when Pilkey won his match at 118 to get things underway. The 50-6 win moved the Generals to 2-5 on the season with three matches left.

In the W&L Quadrangular, a depleted W&L squad hosted three tough opponents in Gallaudet, LaSalle, and Washington and Jefferson. Forfeiting three weight classes in each match, W&L fought hard but came up short in each match, losing 28-21 to Gallaudet, 34-13 to LaSalle, and 40-18 to Washington and Jefferson. Soderberg and Redfoot were sensational in defeat for W&L, going 3-0 and 2-0 respectively. Loupassi went 2-1 in his matches to aid the Generals' cause.

The regular season concluded for W&L with a 2-8 record, but for Loupassi, Pilkey and Redfoot, there was still wrestling to be done. The trio ventured to the Virginia State Championships held in Newport News. Pilkey was runner-up at 126, while Loupassi failed to place at 177. Redfoot was the toast of the tournament, claiming the title at 190 and the Outstanding Wrestler Award for the tourney. He won his final match 11-1, defeating a two-time Division II All-American.

From there the trio travelled to the Eastern Regional Meet, led by Redfoot, who was sporting an 18-1-1 record. Redfoot proved his record was no fluke, making it to the finals before losing a tight match to Division III All-American Mike Fusilli. How close was it? The match was even after the overtime period, but Fusilli prevailed on the basis of more riding time. Loupassi and Pilkey each had some success, finishing 2-2 and 1-2 respectively.

Redfoot's performance earned the senior, who took last season off, a berth in the NCAA Divsion III tournament. Redfoot breezed through his opening match, defeating Scott Vega of Montclair State 14-6. In his quarterfinal match, Redfoot was matched up against Larry Danko, who had handed Redfoot his only loss in the regular season back at Lebanon Valley. Redfoot extracted his revenge, and defeated the All-American from Kings College in overtime. In the semifinals, Redfoot stumbled a bit and was defeated by Dean Gavin of Watburg, 8-4, dropping him into the consolation rounds. In the match for third place, Redfoot was still thinking about his loss to Gavin and was upended by Kevin Schulitz of Ausburg 5-2. Redfoot regrouped in the fifth place match, and defeated Rick Celdwell of Buena Vista College 4-0. Redfoot's performance earned him All-America honors, W&L's first ever All-American wrestler. Although W&L's only wrestler at the tournament, his performance earned the Generals 32nd place, their highest ever.

Men's Swimming

Story by Debbie Grove

The Washington and Lee men's swimming team had its most successful season ever, finishing eighth in the NCAA Division III championships. The Generals were led by junior David Olson, who won the national title in the 200-yard backstroke. Olson is the second swimmer in W&L's 69 year swimming history to win an individual national title.

W&L also got All-American swims from senior Jeff Bercaw (Honorable Mention in the 100 butterfly), junior Shawn Copeland (Honorable Mention in the 200 breaststroke), and freshman Jay Smith (Honorable Mention in the 100 freestyle). The All-America 200 and 400 Medlay relay teams consisted of Olson, Bercaw, Copeland and Smith. The All-America 400 freestyle relay team was made up of Bercaw, Smith, senior captain Dave Reavy and freshman Chip Nordhoff, and the All-America 800 relay team was Copeland, Reavy, Nordhoff and sophomore Jim "Duck" Dunlevy. At the Honorable mention slot was Reavy, Bercaw, Smith and Nordhoff for the 200 freestyle relay team.

In addition to their excellent performance at nationals, the men's team defended their title in the Atlantic States Conference championships. W&L's closest challenge in the meet was UNC-Charlotte, who they defeated by 125.5 points.

Ten swimmers were named to the All-ODAC team: seniors Elizabeth Miles and Nancy Whalen, juniors Kris Amoroso and Heather Logan, sophomores Sharon Coleman, Carol Dannelly, Rachelle Nock and Kristen Wagner, and freshmen Tina Dunford and Jodi Herring.

The team leader was Elizabeth Miles, who was named ODAC Most Outstanding Swimmer for the second year in a row. Miles and Coleman were voted Honorable Mention All-Americans in the NCAA Division III championships.

Volleyball

Story by Debbie Grove

This first year sport has made a place for itself in Washington and Lee history by claiming the position as the only first year sport to win fifteen games.

The women's volleyball team, a developmental sport for the previous two years, had a regular season record of 15-9. That record placed the women fifth in the Old Dominion Athletic Conference.

The team was led by senior co-captains Melissa Thrasher and Vanessa Hartman. Along with tough play by senior Amy Smith, freshman Nancy Brown and sophomore setter Lisa Jay, the Generals' volleyball team is one of the most successful women's sports at W&L.

Final Record: 16-11

Men's Lacrosse

Story by Mike Stachura '86
Sports Information Director

If one game, one play, one moment can wipe out the frustration of an entire season and give hope for the future, the the W & L men's lacrosse team concluded its 1989 season with such a play.

W & L, playing one of the toughest scedules in the nation (eight Division III opponents who were nationally ranked at one time or another and Division I national power Virginia), limped through its first 12 games, winning three and losing to such strongmen as Ohio Wesleyan, Hampden-Sydney, Roanoke and Washington College. When the 13th and final game rolled around, the annual Lee-Jackson Lacrosse Classic with Division I next-door neighbor VMI, the Generals had more than their share of doubters. None, however, were wearing Blue and White on the last Saturday in April.

In a game that was every bit worthy of the title of "Classic," the Ganerals turned in a stunning performance rallying in overtime to defeat the Keydets 10-9. The game marked an excellent finish to a trying season.

The Generals opened the year strong, holding Virginia in check before losing 9-3 and then beating Wooster 13-3. But four straight losses followed, including a heart-breaking overtime loss to Randolph-Macon. W & L then won two of its next three before the exam break, including a 9-8 victory over 14th-ranked Middlebury. Three rough losses to three of Division III's best teams — Hampden-Sydney, Roanoke, Washington College — followed after the spring break.

Senior co-captian John Ware, who led the Generals in scoring for the third year in a row and finished as W & L's sixth-ranked all-time scorer, got W & L on the board first against VMI and went on to score two goals and add two assists. But the hero of the game was freshman Wiemi Douoguih, who scored four goals, including the gamewinner in overtime.

Ware and junior defenseman Reid Campbell were named to the All-ODAC team for the third year in a row, and senior Mike Jones, along with Ware and Campbell, was named to the U.S.I.L.A. All-Region team.

In just its first season as a varsity sport, the Washington and Lee women's lacrosse team had won more success than could be hoped for. The Generals finished in a five-way tie for third place in the Conference regular-season standings and then went on to advance to the semifinals of the Old Dominion Athletic Conference Tournament.

W & L finished with a 7-8 overall record and a 3-4 mark in the ODAC. The Generals played their best lacrosse in the second half of the season, capturing five of their seven wins in the final three weeks of the season. W & L was just two goals away from a 9-6 season.

The Generals traveled to Hollins for the first round of the ODAC tournament, where they faced a squad that had beaten them by a 5-4 count in Lexington two weeks earlier. On the road, W & L rallied for a 7-5 victory to reach the ODAC semifinals. The Generals lost to Roanoke 14-10 in the semifinals.

"It was an extremely exciting finish to the season," said head coach Janine Hathorn. "We played hard, and we played with our hearts. Even though we lost in the semifinals, we had the feeling that we had played very well. There is no doubt we have come an extremely long way this year."

W & L was led statistically by a host of youngsters. Freshmen Kim Bishop and Shawn Wert combined for 49 goals and 14 assists. The Generals also got 33 points from sophomore Brooke Tinley and 25 goals from sophomore Katy Richard. Freshman golie Erica Ingersoll finished with a 57.1 save percentage and made a staggering 144 saves in her final 10 games.

Story by Jay Plotkin

Last year the Washington and Lee men's tennis team came back from a 4- deficit to win the NCAA Division III tournament by sweeping all three doubles matches against U-C Santa Cruz.

This year, the Generals' netters found themselves in a similar situation, only this time, in the first round of the tournament against No.2 Swathmore College. It was the same scenerio that the Blue and White had faced earlier in the season against Swathmore. Unfortunately for the W & L faithful, the result was no different than the match during the season. Swathmore defeated W & L 6-3 earlier in the year in what was then the Generals' biggest match of the year.

When Swathmore defeated the Generals early in the season, W & L was holding on to the No.1 ranking in Division III despite having a 2-5 record. To open the season, W & L lost to Penn. State, but the score was no indication of the closeness of the match. The Generals lost five matches that went three sets, with their lone win coming from the No.1 doubles duo of junior John Morris and senior Bobby Matthews.

One of the wins came against nationally ranked Sewanee, 5-4. In that win, the Generals received big wins from No.6 player junior Billy Tunner, who pulled out a stunner in a third-set tie breaker. The No.3 doubles team, senior Robert Haley and sophomore Bill Meadows won the decisive match in three sets. Haley and Meadows would later move up to the No.2 doubles position.

Against Swathmore, W & L got wins from their top two players, Morris at No.1 and Matthews at No.2 in the singles, and the duo of Morris and Matthews in the doubles for their points. The loss dropped the Generals to 2-6, 1-1 against Division III foes.

From there, W & L took off and won four of their last six matches going into the Old Dominion Conference tournament. The Generals pommelled Hampden-Sydney and Virginia Commonwealth 8-1 and beat Stetson and Flagler by a 6-3 count.

Going into the ODAC tournament, the Generals were the four-time defending champion, and they made a change in their line-up. At third doubles, head coach Gary Franke inserted the team of sophomore Reid Manley and Tunner for the tourney. Throughout the season, Tunner had been paired with freshman Pat Conner, and the pair had struggled.

The move proved to be a wise one, as W & L swept all nine flights of the tournament for the third straight year. Morris, Matthews, Haley, No.4 Meadows, No.5 Manley and Tunner captured the singles crowns, while the pairs of Morris and Matthews, the M&M boys, Haley and Meadows and Manley and Tunner won the doubles titles.

After the tournament, the Generals, ranked No.4 in the nation, set their sights on locking up an NCAA tournament bid against Emory. The Generals came away with a 5-4 win, and shortly afterward were awarded the fifth seed in the tournament. The Blue and White got big wins from Morris, the ODAC MVP, Matthews, Haley at No.3 and Tunner. Haley and Meadows won the deciding point at second doubles.

The Generals closed out the season with a loss to Division II power Hampton before travelling to Kalamazoo, Michigan to try to defend their NCAA title. The Generals drew Swathmore in the opening round, and as was the case in the regular season, Swathmore jumped out to a 4-2 lead after the singles play, with W & L again getting wins from Morris and Matthews. A doubles win from the M & M boys closed the match score to 4-3, and while Haley and Meadows were splitting sets at No.2, Manley and Tunner had their hands full at No.3. Swathmore won that match, and sent the Generals into the consolation round with a 5-3 loss.

W & L rebounded with a 7-2 win over Pomona-Pitzer. The Generals swept the singles play to clinch the match. The Blue and White locked up fifth place with a win over California-San Diego, 6-3. The Generals took a 4-2 lead into the doubles behind the play of Morris, Matthews, Haley and Tunner. W & L clinched the match when Morris and Matthews won their doubles match handily, 6-2, 6-2.

The team finished the season with a 10-11 record, 7-2 against Division III foes, but for the top four players, the season was not over yet. Morris, Matthews and Haley received bids to the individual singles tournament, while the teams of Morris and Matthews and Haley and Meadows played in the doubles.

Morris, the No.2 seed, romped his way through the 64-man draw to the finals without dropping a set. Matthews lost in the quarterfinals to defending champ Noel Occomy of Brandeis in straight sets, while Haley lost in the second round.

In the singles final, Morris staked his claim to W & L tennis fame, stopping top seed Larry Fewer of Washington College in three sets, 6-4, 2-6, 6-2. It was Morris' 20th straight win. Morris became W & L's second national champion of the year, joining swimmer David Olson, who won the 200-backstroke. Matthews also earned All-American status.

In doubles play, Morris and Matthews, seeded fourth, rolled through the field to the finals, where they went up against a team that had beaten them earlier in the week in the team play, Paul Cross and Carl Swanson of Pomona-Pitzer. It was never really a match, as Morris and Matthews disposed of the Pomona-Pitzer duo 6-2, 6-3 to earn the National Cham-

From there, Morris and Matthews received bids to the NCAA Division I tournament in Athens, Ga. Morris lost in the preliminary round in three sets, to Southern Cal's Eric Amend, 4-6, 6-3, 6-2. Amend was a member of the United States Olympic tennis team in the 1988 Olympic Games. Morris finished his junior year with a 26-9 record.

He then took the court with Matthews for the doubles play, and the pair lost in the first round to Joby Foley and Ray Kurcey of West Virginia in two tough sets, 7-6 (7-2), 6-4. The loss dropped the pair to 28-6. Matthews finished his W & L tennis career a six-time All-American.

Women's Tennis

Story by Jay Plotkin

How does a team that finished the year 18-1 improve? One way is to go 19-0. Another is to win something you didn't win last year.

For the Washington and Lee women's tennis team, this was their delimma. They didn't finish this year 19-0, but they did capture the one thing that eluded them last season, the Old Dominion Athletic Conference crown.

Last year, Mary Baldwin edged out the Generals by one-half point. This season, W & L made sure that MBC wouldn't edge them out again. Led by sophomore Jean Stroman, last year's ODAC Player-of-the-Year, W & L stormed through the tournament, winning it for the first time. Coupled with the men's tournament win, it was the first time that a school had won both men's and women's tournaments in the same year.

After splitting their first two matches with Virginia Commonwealth and Virginia Tech, the Generals won six of the next seven matches by 9-0 scores, including Mary Baldwin. In Conference play, Bridgewater was the only team that took a point from W & L, losing 7-2.

W & L played in the Rhodes College tournament over spring break, winning two of three matches, losing to Sewanee 7-2 and defeating Rust 6-1 and Millsaps 9-0. Freshman Muriel Foster, the No.5 player, led the team over the week by winning all three of her matches.

W & L closed out the regular season by defeating Rhodes, one of the top teams in the south, in a tough 5-4 match, and beating Millsaps again, this time 7-2.

Going into the ODAC tournament, W & L was 12-3, being led by junior Teresa Southard, who was 11-4 at No.3, freshman Colleen Quinn, 12-3 at No.4, Foster 12-3, and senior Benny Savage, 13-1 at No.6. In doubles play, Stroman and Quinn were 8-5 at No.1, while Kelly Martone, the No.2 player, teamed with sophomore Kathy Leake to post a 9-6 mark, and Foster, along with senior Martha Christian at No. 3, were 10-3.

W & L earned the ODAC championship by capturing five of the six singles flights. Stroman defnded her title at No.1, and earned the ODAC Player-of-the-Year honor. Martone, a sophomore, won at No.2, and Quinn, Foster, and Savage each captured their respective titles. Savage pulled out her title with a three-set win in the finals. In the doubles, Quinn and Stroman won at No.1, while Leake and Martone won at No.2.

Stroman went on to play in the Division III national tournament, falling in the first round. She finished the year 17-8 after being 8-7 at one point.

Next year, the Generals lose only Savage and Christian from the starters while returning Stroman, Martone, Quinn and Foster, and should be in good shape to claim their second ever ODAC title.

Story by Mike Stachura '86
Sports Information Director

The W&L baseball team turned in a record-breaking season in 1989 by finishing with an 11-9 overall record, the first winning season at W&L since 1972.

The Generals ended nearly 20 years of frustration in fine style by finishing third in the ODAC regular season and reaching the semifinals of the ODAC Tournament. W&L won seven of its last 10 games before losing to eventual ODAC champion Hampden-Sydney in the semifinals.

The Generals turned in one of their best seasons with the bat, hitting .310 as a team and posting a .429 team on-base percentage.

W&L was led by its seven-man class of seniors: pitchers Chris Cunningham, David Holland and Mike Temple, catcher Eddie Klank, first baseman Max Petzold, shortstop Harry Halpert, third baseman Tony Waskiewicz and centerfielder Tom Skeen. Temple was 2-5 with a 4.56 ERA and 26 strikeouts, while Cunningham recorded a save in W&L's ODAC quarterfinal win over Eastern Mennonite and Holland had the third best ERA on the team at 3.68.

Klank was again among the leaders in hitting (.351 average, 4 HR's, .532 slugging percentage). Halpert and Skeen also were strong at the plate, each turning in a .346 batting average. Waskiewicz was close behind with a .329 average in his final season.

Fighting injuries and bad breaks throughout the season, the Washington and Lee men's track team had to settle for a second-place finish at the Old Dominion Athletic Conference Outdoor Track Championships. It was the first time W&L had not finished first in an ODAC track championship since 1986- a string of two indoor championships and two outdoor championships.

W&L, which won its sixth straight ODAC indoor title in February, went into the ODAC outdoor championships plagued by injuries to many of its top performers. Despite the odds, W&L nearly pulled off the miracle, finishing just four points out of first place.

Leading W&L were senior Jim Ambrosini, who was out for most of the season but won the discus, senior tri-captain Scott Williams, who won the 400 meters despite a hamstring injury, and the makeshift 400 relay team of Williams, sophomore Carl Gilbert, sophomore Erik Atkins and senior Tie Sosnowski.

"It was an outstanding performance," said W&L head coach Norris Aldridge, who earlier in the year recorded his 100th career track and field coaching victory at W&L. "We had a lot of adversity to overcome, and we almost were able to do it. It was just one of those years."

The W&L women's track and field team also had a fine season and the Generals won their first meet ever when they defeated Eastern Mennonite. The team was led by captains Beth Stutzmann and Sarah Bolte.

Despite playing the majority of the year without the use of its home course, the Washington and Lee golf team turned in another excellent season.

W&L finished with a 13-3 overall record, the 18th consecutive winning season for the Generals golf program. It was W&L's best record since 1980. The Generals would have traded that record however for an ODAC Championship, but some blazing scores from their opponents on the Generals' home course left W&L in fourth place at the ODAC Championships.

Freshman Jay McKnight gave W&L head coach Buck Leslie a look at a promising future by putting together a 73 and a 75 to finish in second place in the ODAC individual standings. Senior captain Pete Coleman was rewarded for another fine season by being named to the All-ODAC team. It marked the nineth year in a row W&L has had a golfer on the All-Conference team.

"We're a little diappointed, but that's a temporary thing," said Leslie, whose winning percentage at W&L now stands at .848. "The scores we had at ODAC's were some of the best we've had in a long time. I was very happy to see Pete make the All-ODAC team. He's given us superb leadership this year."

As you flip through the 1989 Calyx, we hope you find it an enjoyable rendition of the school year. Many all-nighters and hard work can be attributed to the production of this book.

The following people deserve special recognition for their help in making your '89 Calyx more than a myth: Christian Blessey for his helpful reminders and recommendation of "Spirit of the Valley," Jude at Stop In and Jim at East Lex for their moral support, Charlie Garrison for his unfailing patience, W. Patrick Hinely and Mike Stachura for bailing us out at the last minute, Andre Studio and Hank Mayer for their darkroom hours, and W&L Security for opening the University Center the week after school ended. A special thank you is extended to our Spring Term professors for their understanding of the time spent in the Calyx office rather than in their classes. Also, we thank our roommates and all other individuals who had the misfortune of encountering one of us just before a deadline. Finally, we would like to thank the benefactors and patrons of the Calyx for their generous support.

Congradulations to the Class of '89, we wish you the best of luck in your future endeavors. Hopefully, the '89 Calyx will be a pleasant reminder of your years at W&L. We have truly enjoyed it. Talk to Ya!

Sincerely,
Your Co-editors
